Pioneer Presents the Class of 2003

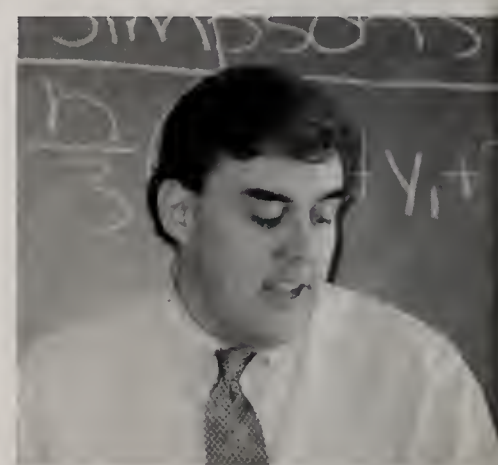

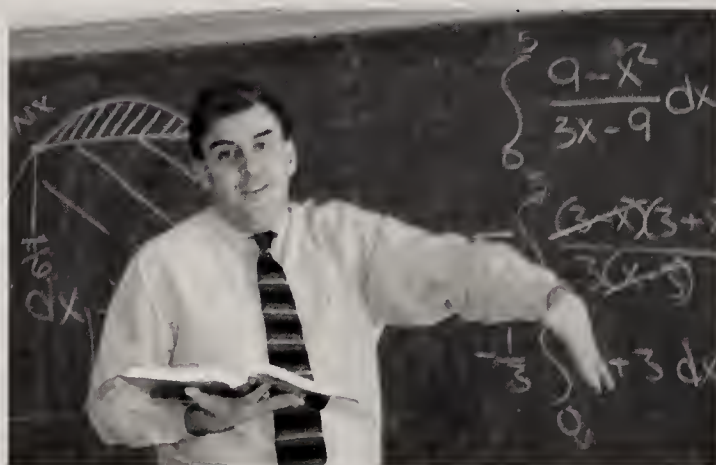

Reading Memorial High School
62 Oakland Road
Reading, Massachusetts

Dedication

We, the class of 2003, dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Chuck Strout. Over the past four years, Mr. Strout has had an immeasurable impact on all those he has taught and advised. In the classroom, his dedication and patience toward his students, along with his efforts to ensure that everyone grasped the material, helped make even the most impossible concepts seem understandable. Though he is often serious, Mr. Strout possesses the ability to make students laugh at their most stressful moments, which adds to the versatility of his teaching ability. As an advisor, his sound advice, constant assistance, and undying enthusiasm were an asset to the class of 2003. We would like to recognize the great impact he has had upon our four years at RMHS by dedicating our yearbook to him. Thank you very much, Mr. Strout.

January 10, 2003

Dear Class of 2003,

The Class of 2003 had many accomplishments during the years in academics, drama, music and athletics. The accomplishments of the Class of 2003 have brought honor and recognition to both Reading Memorial High School and to the entire Reading community. I am extremely proud to be the superintendent of such an outstanding group of young men and young women.

As you begin on a new road, I hope you will have fond memories of Reading Memorial High School, of your teachers, and of the friends you have made here. On behalf of the Reading School Committee, the administration and staff of the Reading Public Schools, I congratulate you on completing your education here in Reading and wish you happiness and success in all your future endeavors.

Sincerely yours,

Harry K. Harutunian, Ph D

Yearbook Message – Class 2003

Farewells are difficult. New beginnings will both excite and energize you. You are about to enter the next part of your life's journey and you have prepared well to face its challenges. You will leave behind a legacy that your school and town will envy. Your accomplishments in the classroom, on our stage, and on our athletic fields have been extraordinary.

You are the class of new traditions. I loved the Christmas trees in the courtyard, the trick or treat food drive, and your part in the holiday gift to the teachers. You have played a major role in all but eliminating the pumpkining tradition. It took courage and a strong sense of character. That is what defines your class. The Class of 2003 has the ability to do, the knowledge of what is right, and the will to lead. Thank you and God Bless.

Mr. Frank J. Orlando

Ms. Cheryl O'Brien
Assistant Principal

Ms. O'Brien was the Assistant Principal for the class of 2003 for our freshman and junior years at RMHS. She was there to assist us in our transition to the high school and was available to help us navigate the hallowed halls. We wish her the very best of luck in her future endeavors. We thank her for her support and we will miss her.

Mr. Michael Scarpitto
Assistant Principal

Mr. Scarpitto came to the high school at the beginning of our sophomore year. His introduction of the High Five Club and the Academic Luncheons added to the morale of both the staff and the student body. His continual efforts to improve the high school have not gone unnoticed by the student body. We thank him for his dedication and support to the class of 2003.

Mr. Gary Hart
Assistant Principal

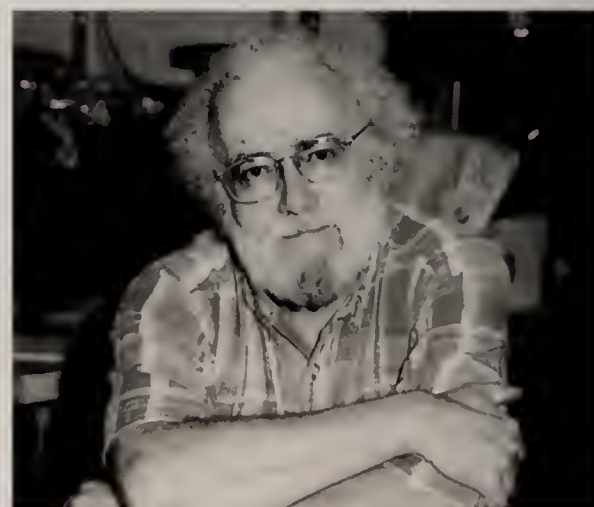

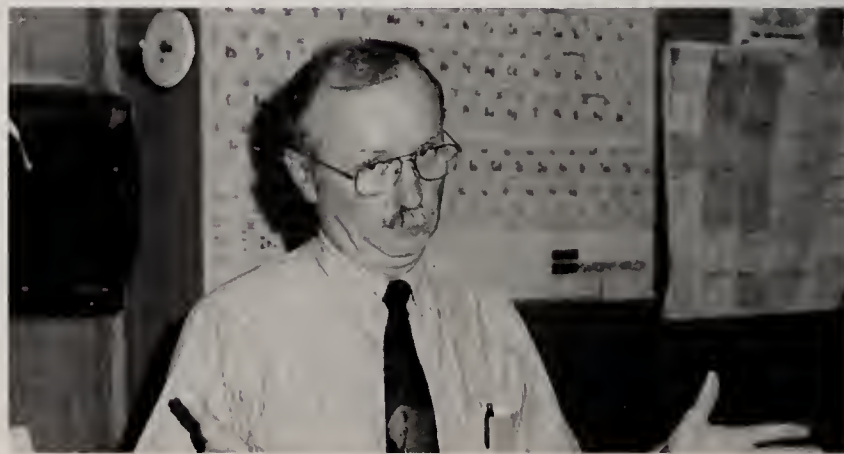

Though Mr. Hart joined us late, his presence was well received and extremely positive. In the short time he has been here he has gained the utmost respect of both the students and staff. His upbeat personality and high level of energy have made him a valuable addition to the RMHS community. The class of 2003 thanks him.

Mr. Philip Vaccaro Athletics/Activities Director

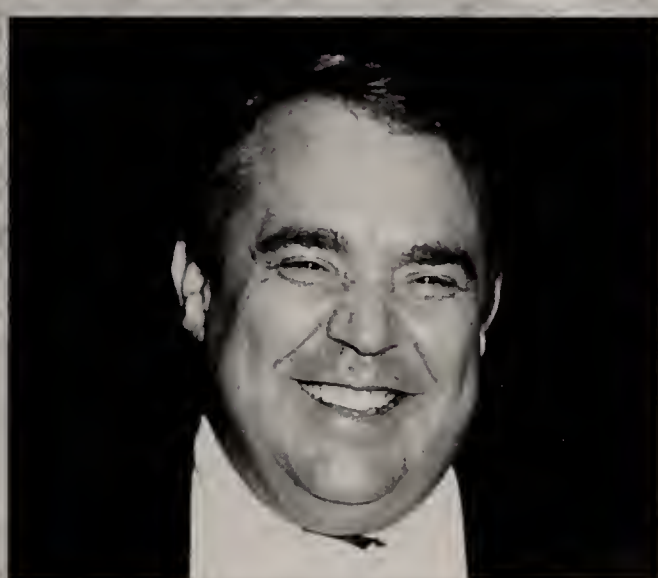

As Athletic director and friend, Mr. Vaccaro has guided and taught us throughout our four years at RMHS. On the court, field, pool, green, rink, diamond, or track, Mr. Vaccaro has made an impression on the Class of '03. Thank you Mr. Vaccaro for believing in us and helping us to achieve and grow.

Senior Class Advisors

Mr.
Strout

THANK YOU!!!

Mrs.
Granero

Mr. Strout has been our class advisor for all of our years at Reading Memorial High School. Mrs. Granero joined Mr. Strout as our class advisor at the beginning of our junior year. The two have spent countless hours trying to better our high school experience. Together, the two have helped plan our semi, our proms and many other activities such as our class trip to Six Flags, and planning the layout of the '03 Christmas trees in the court yard. Also, Mr. Strout and Mrs. Granero have worked to earn money for the class. We thank them for their hard work and dedication to the class of 2003.

I'll never forget the times I had in the basement corner. Before school, my friends and I gathered in the same corner of the building's deteriorating basement; it always seemed to start the day off right. That corner was the perfect place to make fun of life - laughing, crying, and procrastinating all the way. Actually Matt was the only one who ever cried there; it was pretty awkward. I'll miss that corner, but it's only two walls, so I know it won't miss me. Still, I had fun. Thanks to: Coach Darrin, Mr. Kaczowka, Mr. Ryan, Mr. Feit, Mr. Swanson (RIP), Mr. Appleby, Mr. Oberheim, and all my teachers. Also to my friends, especially the "corner" crew.

Can't believe it's over. Just wanted to say thanks to you all for your friendship and kindness when I needed it the most. Sorry, but I can't name anyone in particular because it wouldn't be fair now would it? Don't be sad guys, life goes on. And as for me I've changed a lot although many of you will detest this. See all of you at the reunion with my wife hopefully if I even get one. I love you all.

SMHBONKOBISGNERD Dear ABC Family, I have lately discovered that you are hiding The Wonder Years from the youth of America. As a youthful American I am angered beyond belief. After a long day of school I would much rather come home to The Wonder Years at 6PM instead of 11AM during Calculus. It could be very successful if you put it on opposite reruns of Home Improvement. Please make the switch. Sincerely, Your #1 Fan.

Over the past four years I have had the time of my life. What's up to all my boys, AW, MB, JD, BN, JL, CA, BD, CS, MD, AM, TF, and the rest of the park crew. We had some great times, chilling at the park, playing ball, pool hopping, too many things to list here. I can't believe that I'm finally done. The time has passed by so quickly, but I can at least say I had a great time.

I'm finally out of here! These four years have lasted an eternity. There have been so many ups and downs.
There have been so many memories that I will never forget: Proms, dances, parties, the dogs, bagel world, my cottage and most of all my friends. Funny times: Liz and whoopie pies and chocolate syrup and Lauren picking up the hot dogs. Haha!! Nikki I love you! Thanks Mom for everything that you've done. I Love You.

I can't believe we've finally made it!!! Ever since we were little preschoolers, we always wanted to be the "BIG" 5th graders, 8th graders & 12th graders. And now here we are, graduating together as the class of 2003. Through thick & thin, fun times & rough times, the past 4 years have been a blast! I'll never forget the crazy times & I'll miss ya'll. Mom, Dad, & Bryan, you guys are the best, thanks for everything! Best wishes and good luck!!! Muahs!

One thing kids like is to be tricked. For instance, I was going to take my little nephew to Disneyland, but instead I drove him to an old burned-out warehouse.
"Oh, no," I said, "DisneyLand burned down." He cried and cried, but I think that deep down he thought it was a pretty good joke. I started to drive over to the real DisneyLand, but it was getting pretty late.

Here is the man who needs no introduction... Phil. Well folks, here we go. Out of RMHS at last. These past few years have had good times and there's more to come. Personally, I'm going to try a career in music pretty much no matter what. So a few years from now you could either hear me on the radio or I'll be rustling through trash somewhere on the street. Advice to all of you: Do what you love and don't be afraid of being wrong.

James Moore

Jim, Jimbo: Thanks mom, dad, TJ, and all those who have made the last four years worth while. Never will I forget you. No need to name anyone. Good luck to my fellow classmates. I will now leave you with a quote from Michelangelo: "Wiseman say, forgiveness is divine, but never pay full price for late pizza. The rest is silent."

Rose Moore

5 Elm Street

Just the idea of me being a senior makes my brain go numb. It's gone by way too fast! I'd like to say an eternal hello and goodbye to the sea monkeys... and my pals, the people who say hi back, and the people who don't get the jokes but laugh anyway. Everything is sad T.T but just keep on laughing, most everything's eventually turn out better. "Your life is your own novel, but picture books are funner!" Have fun PLAID

The crew has had some good times in the years past... Kyle and Allen our memories go way back. Mike, soccer was great no matter what we say. Jeff, always busting a move. Marf, your pool was always a sweet time. Adam, bouncin' around like it's nobody's business. One can't forget GramFest 1+2...? Skiing at Loon, Long Beach, Six Flags, Semi (LM), Junior Prom
(JJ) or Fuzz's house. Thanks for everything Mom, Dad, Mike and McKenzie.

want to thank my friends and family for always being there and for making high school a memorable time. During the 4 seasons that I've spent with the football team, I've had some really good experiences. These four years have gone fast! I wish the best of luck to everyone, both in college and in the real world. I hope we will meet again and remember the good times we shared together.

Row 1: K. Hery, J. Hogan, A. Griffin, N. Cowell, C. Collins, Row 2: M. Marfione, J. Martin, S. Whittaker, A. Heaney, K. Corley, not pictured: I. Walcott

The Senior Officers are an elected group which serve as liasons between the Senior Class and Administration. Members meet weekly throughout the year to plan fundraising events such as dances and the annual Pancake Breakfast. They also organize major senior activities including the Senior trip to Six Flags, the Senior Banquet, Class Day, and the Prom.

Student Council

The Student Council is made up of elected representatives from each grade level. The group is involved in student activities, as well as service within the community. The group plans, organizes, and carries out many activities throughout the year. They also help with freshmen elections, organizing Spirit Week, and with the Spirit Rally. Among other fundraising activities, the group sells candy, carnations for Valentine's Day, and holds bake sales.

Youth and Government

Nick Visocchi, Heather Cohen, Katie Hery

Youth and Government is a group run by the YMCA. Reading and surrounding towns make up the Burbank delegation. Our main focus is preparing for a weekend in Boston where we meet in the Statehouse with other Massachusetts students also involved in the program. Students in the Legislative branch work on preparing a bill prior to the weekend when the bills are heard by a committee of their fellow students. Other students are involved in the Judicial and Executive branches.

Student Advisory Council

The Student Advisory Council acts as representatives to the Northeast Regional Student Advisory Council. We meet once a month with other representatives from high schools in our region.

Made up of Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors, Peer Leaders is a staple of the Reading High community. Peer leaders are mostly known for their annual AIDS candle light vigil in the town square and participation in the tree lighting festivities. They are also trained in problem solving and have extensive knowledge about drugs and their effect in the human body. Thanks to a grant from the Reading Health Department, led by Jane Fiore, and with excellent advisors in Guidance counselors Mrs. Quinlan and Ms. Visconti, great things are expected from Peer Leaders in years to come.

Russo, N. Goldstein

Unity at RMHS is a student run organization that tries to promote diversity and acceptance throughout the school. Unity is actively involved in many activities such as the United States Campaign to Ban Landmines (U.S.C.B.L.), which is currently petitioning President Bush to sign the Landmine Treaty. Unity has created its own Bullying Program which includes trips to the elementary schools to teach 4th graders what bullying is, how to prevent it, and what to do in bullying situations. Unity also enjoys attending Team Harmony, and conferences at Salem State on Race, Culture, and Ethnicity.

Athletes For All

AHL is a club for athletes dedicated to a substance free existence while participating in sports. AHL sponsors many fun activities such as the Frisbee tournament, a Middle-School dance and the ever popular Volleyball tournament.

SADD

SADD (Students Against Destructive Decisions) is an organization whose goal is to educate students of the consequences of unhealthy choices. SADD does this through guest speakers, the chain of life, and the mock car accident in the spring.

The Gay/Straight Alliance (GSA) isn't exactly the biggest club in the high school but it's by far one of the best. GSA is a group that welcomes diversity and encourages support of all sexual orientations. The teen's in-group network with other local GSA members from area high schools. We work to create a healthy/safe atmosphere for all high school students. GSA is cool!

Impressions

Impressions Literary Magazine produces one publication a year containing student art and poetry. Impressions has run numerous coffee houses as well where students are invited to showcase poetry and music.

The Reading Memorial High School Community Service Club is a volunteer student service organization which meets weekly after-school. It is open to all students at RMHS who choose to participate, and RMHS Social Studies/Humanities Teacher Mr. D.J. Deeb serves as the club advisor. The Co-Presidents are Irene Walcott and Adam Pacelli. The RMHS Community Service Club was organized just last year. In the past, Community Service Members have organized a book drive, a toy drive, a clothing drive, assisted in the Reading Technology Fund activities, and organized a bake sale to raise money for nearby homeless shelters.

International Club

Row1: :Jane doe, C. Rogers, J. Davis, N. Benjamin
Row 2: Mrs. alvarez, K. Schmiedl, K. Leong, M. Tinney

The purpose of the International Club is to foster awareness of cultural diversity by exploring local events involving international cultures. Originally founded as the Spanish Club and the French Club, the two merged in order to give students opportunities for more varied experiences.

Vernal Pool Club

The Vernal Pool Association is an environmental project of RMHS. Our goal is to encourage the appreciation, protection and interdisciplinary study of vernal pools, particularly by students. To meet this objective, we produce educational materials, present workshops and talks, and interact with educators and students both in person and through the Internet. We are actively involved with state, federal and private environmental protection and education agencies and organizations.

Model UN

Row 1: K. Schimedl, S. Ferguson, T. Selfridge
Row 2: A. Lapane, J. Lacey, J. Davis, E. MacPhee,

The Model UN is comprised of politically and socially conscious students from eight nearby schools and gathers in March to debate and discuss issues of international concern. Students take on the role of a specific country and approach such issues as AIDS in Africa, disarmament of nuclear and chemical weapons, the status of women in the Middle East, and the fight against world hunger from the view point of that country. Debate ensues, amendments are made, and minds are expanded, in hopes that students will learn to think globally.

National History Day

National History Day is an academic program that encourages students to explore historical themes and ideas through papers, exhibits, documentaries, and performances. NHD begins as a competition within the high school and then branches out to the district, state and finally the National Contest held in Washington D.C.

Frisbee Club

The Frisbee Club is open to all students at RMHS. We are a diverse group that has one common interest, Frisbee. We enjoy playing all year round, even if that means playing in a snow storm.

Jazz Vocal Ensemble

We are a group of eight selected singers who rehearse every week to build up an extensive repertoire of songs to perform at different shows. Some of our performances this year were the Holiday Concert, Reading Tree Lighting, Reading Business Women's Club meeting. Last year we performed at the Woburn mall, Reading Housing Authority, and Teacher of the Year Ceremony. Our repertoire includes All That Jazz, Embraceable You, And so it Goes, 42nd Street, Under the Boardwalk, That Thing You do, Rockin' Robin, and I Will Remember You.

Missing from photo: S. Finigan, A. Nakano

Art Club includes group work on several projects. The art club has worked on and produced artwork that decorates the halls of our school. This includes murals, paintings, and other various craft-line projects. The art club also plans to take art-related field trips to further our experiences and knowledge within the art community.

Orbit

Published annually, The Orbit is the RMHS student newspaper that deals with school issues and current events in the form of hard news articles, letters to the editor, and interviews. The staff is led brilliantly by Mr. Oberheim, whose wit and wisdom serves to enhance not only the quality of the newspaper, but the entire experience of newspaper production as well.

Row 1: B. Burns, K. Crepeau, C. Twomey, E. Vickery, F. Devaney Row 2: K. Sears, M. Scharr, K. Junker, S. Nelson

Slide Show

The Slide Show committee has been working hard to gather pictures and some videos for this year's senior slide show. They are trying to improve upon last year's impressive performance.

Editors-in-chief: A. Murphy, K. Luddy, C. Robillard

Drawing strength from their motto, "Mr. Porter loves SPAM," the yearbook staff was able to survive countless hours, and many late nights, in the yearbook office to bring you this insurmountable piece of literary greatness. Many thanks to our editors, Katie "I Don't Care WHAT You Think" Luddy, Allison "Can't Spell Anything--Captian" Murphy, and Carey "I Moved to Niceville" Robillard, and to the Grand Poo-Bah of Yearbook Advisors, Mr. Porter. We'd also like to thank ONLY those people listed to the left for contributing their creative genius to our masterful ... masterpiece. For lack of a stellar conclusion, we'd like to leave you with these words of infinite wisdom: balonely is the luncheon meat that sits by itself.

The Rainbow Connipition Club

All in all, we are the Rose-Kelly Club. It is obvious that we are special because we have our own club. You don't have your own club, do you? No, we didn't think so. Through calculations we discovered that we-being Rose and Kelly-were the only ones special enough to be in the club. Actually, we were thinking of including Nick Puoposo, but after much debate we concluded that he wasn't powerful enough to join.

Kelly Sears and Rose Moore

The P.J. Fan Club

The P.J. Club is an elite group of people who have come together in the hope to enjoy everything that is P.J., their P.J. licous leader. With President Sue Madden and Vice President Natalie Cowell...help raise the awareness of P.J.

The Ictheo-Botanist Social(ism) Club, Circa 2002! is dedicated to the study and preservation of the rare tree-dwelling fish species, and the communal societies they form. Despite being faced with war, territorial destruction and harsh weather conditions, the IBSC, C2002! has not only survived, but flourished, gaining numerous new members in both lunches. Meeting daily in the courtyard during lunch, the IBSC, C2002! under the leadership of its founding members and security council, is dedicated to preserving the unique and intricate ecosystem of the courtyard, one of the places tree-dwelling fish can survive.
